Singer-Songwriter David J Ashley releases solo project – “David on Earth”

Singer-songwriter David Ashley will celebrate the release of his debut solo album “David on Earth” on Tuesday July 15th.

The debut CD is a compilation of mostly new material with one re-produced song. The CD is in the rock genre with an broad, eclectic offering. Decades of artistic influence are at work here after his experiences traveling the world and examining his faith and the lives of those around him. You'll notice the modern, the classic standard, international/world, psychedelic, folk, acoustic and industrial. His hope is that people will notice the message and the heart behind the music more than the style.

He's been compared to David Bowie, Bebo Norman, and Trent Reznor (of Nine Inch Nails)

The new CD will be available through his website and downloads are available through most major online music outlets (iTunes, eMusic, Napster, Amazon, etc.)

David has been with the band Polaradio since 2006 and continues to record and play with the band in Colorado and the Midwest.
